INDEX TO VOLUME 24

Abbreviations: book rev'd, book reviewed; cont'd, continued; ed., editorial

A

Abstracts of Papers on Food and Nutrition, 924

Abstracts from Periodicals: Child Development and Family Relationships, 174, 369, 550, 636, 836, 1008; Family Economics, 177, 372, 639, 1103; Food and Nutrition, 64, 180, 273, 377, 462, 553, 643, 737, 839, 1012, 1107; Homemaking Education, 69, 277, 466, 740; The House, Its Equipment and Management, 73, 281, 469, 646, 1016; Institution Administration, 285, 474, 844, 1111; Textiles and Clothing, 184, 380, 556, 743, 1020

Abstracts from Periodicals, New Classification of (ed.), 46

ADAMS, LUCY. Objectives in Teaching Family Relationships. II. Opinions of Rural Women, 121; 207

ADAMS, WALDO L. Cafeteria Problems in Rural Schools, 595; 669

Adequacy of Daily Menus at Low Cost in a Home Management House, 132

Adequate Food at Low Cost (ed.), 145

Adjusting Family Spending to Meet Reduced Incomes, 941

Adjustments to Present Conditions, How Illinois Farm Homemakers Have Made, 240

Adolescent Girls and Boys, Suggested Interests of, 886

Adult Education: The Contribution of Home Demonstration Work to Adult Education in the United States, 904; A Study of Extension Service Methods Used in Teaching Home Economics Subject Matter to Adults, 903

Advertising: Advertising Reviewed by Advertisers (ed.), 813; Foods and Food Advertising (ed.), 255; Truth in Food Advertising, 705

AGREN, R. ELLEN. A Study of Extension Service Methods Used in Teaching Home Economics Subject Matter to Adults, 903

Alley Dwellings in the District of Columbia (ed.), 252

American Family, The Present Status of the, 773

American Home Economics Association: The American Public Health Association and the American Home Economics Association (ed.), 250; Annual Meeting (eds.), 42, 149, 246, 343, 438, 530, 531, 719, 909–915; Bibliographies on the Family and Its Relationships (ed.), 256; Executive Committee Meeting, Chicago, November 15 and 16 (ed.), 44; Fellowship Awards (ed.), 614; Fellowships for Home Economists (ed.), 48; The Field Worker in Child Development and Parental Education (eds.), 712, 1088; Officers, 1932–33, 939; Scholarship in Health Education (ed.), 48

American Public Health Association and the American Home Economics Association (ed.), 250

American Red Cross, The Nutrition Service of the (eds.), 441, 917

ANDERSON, EARL W. (and REUBEN H. ELIASSEN). High School Home Economics Teachers in the United States, 227; 309

ANDERSON, JOHN E. The Socio-Economic Status of the Home in Relation to Child Care and Development, 892

ANDERSON, MARY. The Economic Status of Wage-earning Homemakers, 864; 938

ANDREWS, BENJAMIN R. Life Insurance and the Dependent Family, 526; 579

Apartment in the Public School, 232

Arguments for Supporting Health Work (ed.), 987

ARMSTRONG, FLORENCE A. Grades and Labels for Canned Fruits and Vegetables, 948; 1037; Managerial Status of Women in Food Service and Institutional Housekeeping, 340; 400

Assistant Teaching in Home Economics, A Plan for, 800

Association of Teachers of Domestic Subjects: English Meetings (ed.), 918

Atlanta, Schools and Home Economics in (ed.), 246

ATWATER, RUTH. Information about Canned Food Products, 527; 580

B

BAILEY, LIBERTY HYDE. [Martha Van Rensselaer] As Pioneer in Agricultural Extension Work for Women, 762; 849

BARBER, SOLON R. The Label Reader's Primer, 1078; Tricky Labels on Foods, 502; 579

BAYLOR, ADELAIDE S. Homemaking Education on the Island of Porto Rico, 679; 759

BAZORE, KATHARINE. Internationalism in a Hawaiian Home Management House, 1060; 1129

BEATTY, FLORENCE E. Relief Work in the Milwaukee Public Schools, 525; 579

BEATTY, THELMA LOUISE. A College Course in Family Relationships, 133; 207

Bedding, Facts about (ed.), 617

Beef, The Effect of Fat on Shrinkage and Speed in the Roasting of, 720

Better Homes in America, New Projects of, 217

Bibliographies on the Family and Its Relationships (ed.), 256

Big Business in Time of Depression, 26

BIGELOW, HOWARD F. Changing from Two Incomes to One, 697; 759

BLAKE, MARION M. (and MARJORIE STEVENS). The Clubroom in the Public School, 234; 309

Blankets: Labelling Wool Content in Blankets, 237; Labels for Wool Blankets (ed.), 249

Bogert, L. Jean. Nutrition and Physical Fitness (book rev'd), 59

BOMBERGER, F. B. Woman's Part in Agricultural Adjustment to Meet Agricultural Conditions, 902

Bonser, Frederick Gordon. Life Needs and Education (book rev'd), 1003

Books about Home Life in Foreign Countries (ed.), 349

Books Received: 59, 171, 269, 365, 457, 544, 631, 734, 833, 930, 1003, 1098.

BOWLES, JOHNE E. The Teaching of Color, 982

Braille, A Cookbook in (ed.), 716

BRIDGMAN, RALPH P. The Scope and Purpose of Parent Education, 893

British Broadcasting on Home Topics (ed.), 991

Broccoli: Iron Loss in Cooking Broccoli, 821; The Vitamin B and G Content of Raw and Cooked Broccoli, 823

BROWN, CLARA M. (and LOUISE KELLER). The Prognostic Value of the Honor Point Ratios of Home Economics Students, 54; 102; (and IVA I. SELL), A Study of the Individual Assignment versus the Class Method of Instruction in a Ninth-Grade Clothing Class, 621; 669

BROWN, VIRGINIA. An Experiment in Teaching Child Care, 798; 849
BUCKLEY, MARY M. Home Economics in the Evening School, 980; 1037
Budgets: Determination of Standards for the Establishment of Household Budgets for the Expenditure of Money, Time, and Energy, 1047
Bureau of Home Economics: (ed.), 251; Popular Publications of the Bureau of Home Economics (ed.), 444; What the United States Department of Agriculture and the Bureau of Home Economics Give You for Your Money (ed.), 818
BURNS, KATHRYN VAN AKEN (and GLADYS J. WARD). How Illinois Farm Homemakers Have Made Adjustments to Present Conditions, 240; 309
Business of the Home and Courses in General Business Training (ed.), 37
Business and Information for the Consumer (ed.), 40
Business Training: The Business of the Home and Courses in General Business Training (ed.), 37

C

Cafeteria Problems in Rural Schools, 595
Calcium: The Relation of Calcium and Phosphorus in the Diet to the Cause of Mottled Enamel of Human Teeth, 1091
Camp Fire Girls: (ed.), 616; The Program of the Camp Fire Girls, 588
CAMPBELL, EPSIE. Housing the Home Economics Department in Georgia, 1070; 1129
Canned Citrus Products, Vitamin C in, 827
Canned Food Products, Information about, 527
Canned Fruits and Vegetables, Grades and Labels for, 948; (ed.), 988
CARMICHAEL, O. C. Home Economics in Higher Education, 851; 938
CARSE, EDITH. Relative Cost of Flamo and Electricity for Cooking, 537; 580
CHANEY, MARGARET S. Truth in Food Advertising, 705; 760
Changes in Solubility and Absorption Spectra of Silk Fibroin Caused by Tin Weighting, 995
Changing Emphasis on Clothing Courses, 889
Changing from Two Incomes to One, 697
CHAPMAN, ARDENIA. A Textile Merchandise Major in a Home Economics Curriculum, 30; 101
Character Education, Yearbook on (ed.), 810
Child, Alice M. (and Kathryn B. Niles). Food Preparation Recipes (book rev'd), 632; et al., Food Preparation Studies (book rev'd), 931
Child Care, An Experiment in Teaching, 798
Child Development and Family Relationships: Abstracts from Periodicals, 174, 369, 550, 636, 836, 1008; An Experiment in Teaching Child Care, 798; The Extension Program in Child Development and Parent Education in the State of Michigan, 894; Methods Employed and Results Obtained by Nursery School Teachers in Their Child-training Contacts, 885; Money and the Child's Own Standards of Living, 1; National Association of Nursery Education, Philadelphia, November, 1931, 34; The Socio-Economic Status of the Home in Relation to Child Care and Development, 892 (See also Family Relationships.)
Children and the Movies (ed.), 256
Citrus Products, Vitamin C in Canned, 827
CLARK, HAROLD F. Equality of Economic Opportunity and Occupational Training, 581, 669
Clothes and the Man, 507

Clothing: (See Textiles and Clothing.)
Clothing and Health in a School Assembly Program, 709
Clubroom in the Public School, 234
COBB, C. A. The Future Promise of Farm Life, 974; 1037
College Course in Family Relationships, 133
College Foods Course, The Home Project as an Aid in the, 611
College Students: Inspection Trips for College Students, 978; Opportunities of Home Economics in the Training of College Students for Life Security, 895
Conference on Homemaking, New England (ed.), 613
Congressional Legislation of Interest to Home Economics (ed.), 251
CONNOR, RUTH. Suggested Interests of Adolescent Girls and Boys, 886
Consumer Food Purchases from Chain and Independent Dealers, 436
Consumer Problems: Business and Information for the Consumer (ed.), 40; Consumer Food Purchases from Chain and Independent Dealers, 436; Consumer Purchasing Leaflets (ed.), 250; The Consumer's Responsibility in the Present Crisis, 209; The Cost of Installment Credit to Consumers, 25; Facts about Bedding (ed.), 617; Grades and Labels for Canned Fruits and Vegetables, 948, (ed.), 988; Information about Canned Food Products, 527; The Label Reader's Primer, 1078; Purchasing Information for the Homemaker, 902; A Restatement of the Principles of Consumption to Meet Present Conditions, 869; Tricky Labels on Foods, 502; Truth in Food Advertising, 705; What the Consumer Should Know about Clothing and Textiles, 21; What Homemakers Learned about Purchasing Household Goods, 519
Consumer Purchasing Leaflets (ed.), 250
Consumer's Responsibility in the Present Crisis, 209
Consumption to Meet Present Conditions, A Restatement of the Principles of, 869
Continuation School, Homemaking in the, 788
Contribution of Home Demonstration Work to Adult Education in the United States, 904
Contributors: 101, 207, 309, 400, 494, 579, 669, 759, 849, 938, 1037, 1129
Identifying Our Contributors (ed.), 47
Cookbook in Braille (ed.), 716
Cooking, Relative Cost of Flamo and Electricity for, 537
Cooking Tests with Lima Bean Flours, 626
COOLEY, ANNA M. Economics and Home Economics Instruction in the Schools, 584; 669
Cooperation for Better Nutrition (ed.), 986
Cost of Installment Credit to Consumers, 25
Costume Design, Eastern European Costume as Inspiration for Modern, 890
Cottage Plan for Home Economics Departments (ed.), 1087
COZART, MRS. THOMAS. What Home Economics Has Contributed to the Development of the American Girl and Boy, 1053; 1129
Creative Work and the Home Economics Teacher (ed.), 534
CREIGHTON, MARTHA. Home Economics Cottages in Virginia, 1064; 1129
CROOK, WALDO N. H. Clothes and the Man, 507; 579
CROWE, EDITH. Clothing and Health in a School Assembly Program, 709; 760

D

DAVISON, ELOISE. Household Efficiency at the International Scientific Management Congress, 1081; 1129

DAVISON, M. LUCILLE (and ETHEL AUSTIN MARTIN). Health Education in the Public Schools of Akron, Ohio, 967; 1037
Definitions of Terms Used in Meat Cookery, 129
Demonstration Food Lesson, 806
DENNY, GRACE G. What the Consumer Should Know about Clothing and Textiles, 21; 101
DENTON, MINNA C. Palatability Tests with Quick-cooked Rolled Oats, Boiled over Direct Flame, 243; 310
Department of Supervisors and Teachers of Home Economics (eds.), 45, 446, 532, 819, 994
Derryberry, Mahew, et al. Health Protection for the Preschool Child (book rev'd), 270
Descriptions of Acceptable Food Products, 1024; 1114; (ed.), 989
Determination of Standards for the Establishment of Household Budgets for the Expenditure of Money, Time, and Energy, 1047
Detroit Demonstrates What the Welfare Food Dollar Will Do, 607
DEWEY, JOHN. The Economic Situation: A Challenge to Education, 495; 579
Dewey, Melvil, 1851–1931 (ed.), 254
DICKERSON, L. L. The Finer Arts of Homemaking in a Public Library, 336; 400
Diets: Low Cost Diets Planned According to Different Standards, 113
DIMOND, BLANCHE F. Home Economists in Social Agencies during the Present Emergency, 431; 494
Dirt-lifting Efficiency and Wear Produced on Carpets by DifferentTypes of Vacuum Sweepers, 257
Discussion of Home Economics Education in the Light of Economic and Social Changes, 898
District of Columbia, Alley Dwellings in the (ed.), 252
Does Home Economics Function in the Modern Home, 671
D'OLIER, ANNE ARGUE (with PAULINE BEERY MACK). Effect of Storage in the Dark on the Breaking Strength of Weighted and Unweighted Silks, 165; 208
Domestic Science in Madras Schools (ed.), 815

E

Eastern European Costume as Inspiration for Modern Costume Design, 890
Economic Conditions and Education (ed.), 247
Economic Crisis, Responsibility of Home Economics Teachers in Their Communities in the Present, 880
Economic Situation: A Challenge to Education, 495
Economic Status of Wage-earning Homemakers, 864
Economics and Home Economics Instruction in the Schools, 584
Educating a State to the Value of Home Economics (ed.), 1084
Education: (See Home Economics Education.)
Education in the Federal Government (ed.), 447
Education for Home and Family Life: (See Home Economics Education.)
Educational Broadcasting, Some Essentials of, 908
Educative Values in the School Lunch, 602
Effect of Fat on Shrinkage and Speed in the Roasting of Beef, 720
Effect of Storage in the Dark on the Breaking Strength of Weighted and Unweighted Silks, 165
Effect of Weighting on the Air Permeability of Silk, 539
EICHELBERGER, MARIETTA. The History of Evaporated Milk, 793; 849
Electricity for Cooking, Relative Cost of Flamo and, 537

Elementary and Secondary Education for Family Living, 221
ELIASSEN, REUBEN H. (and EARL W. ANDERSON). High School Home Economics Teachers in the United States, 227; 309
ELIOT, THOMAS D. Money and the Child's Own Standards of Living, 1; 101
ELLIOTT, JOHN LOVEJOY. The Permanent Values of the Family, 861; 938
Emergency Activities of the Home Economics Extension Service, 683
Emergency Relief Projects: Adequate Food at Low Cost (ed.), 145; Big Business in Time of Depression, 26; Detroit Demonstrates What the Welfare Food Dollar Will Do, 607; Emergency Activities of the Home Economics Extension Service, 683; Home Economics and Emergency Relief (ed.), 38; The Home Economics Worker and Relief Programs (ed.), 346; Home Economists in Social Agencies during the Present Emergency, 431; How Clothing Classes May Serve a Community, 28; How the University of Cincinnati Helps with Community Nutrition Problems, 804; Milwaukee Home Economists Save Money for Relief Agencies and the Community, 433; Pueblo Smith-Hughes Homemaking Classes and Community Needs, 339; Relief Work in the Milwaukee Public Schools, 525; Responsibility of Home Economics Teachers in Their Communities in the Present Economic Crisis, 880
Employer-Employee Relationships in the Home: Standards for Women as Household Employers (ed.), 350
Engineering, Household, 889
Equality of Economic Opportunity and Occupational Training, 581
Equipment of the Home Economics Department, Space and, 230
Essential Functions of the Home (ed.), 344
Essentials for Fashion Work, 32
European Costume as Inspiration for Modern Costume Design, Eastern, 890
Evaporated Milk, The History of, 793
Evening School, Home Economics in the, 980
Executive Committee Meeting, Chicago, November 15 and 16 (ed.), 44
Experiment in Teaching Child Care, 798
Extension: The Contribution of Home Demonstration Work to Adult Education in the United States, 904; Emergency Activities of the Home Economics Extension Service, 683; Extension Program in Child Development and Parent Education in the State of Michigan, 894; Programs for Farm Youth Based on Social and Economic Conditions, 605; A Study of Extension Service Methods Used in Teaching Home Economics Subject Matter to Adults, 903
Extension Program in Child Development and Parent Education in the State of Michigan, 894

F

Facts about Bedding (ed.), 617
Family Economics: Abstracts from Periodicals, 177, 372, 639, 1103; Adjusting Family Spending to Meet Reduced Incomes, 941; Changing from Two Incomes to One, 697; The Economic Status of Wage-Earning Homemakers, 864; Life Insurance and the Dependent Family, 526; Round Table on Research in Family Economics, 887
Family and Household Life as Objectives of Appreciational Cultural Educations, 322
Family Life, Radio as an Aid to Research in (ed.), 994
Family, The Permanent Values of the, 861

Family, The Present Status of the American, 773
Family Relationships: Bibliographies on the Family and Its Relationships (ed.), 256; A College Course in Family Relationships, 133; Does Home Economics Function in the Modern Home, 671; A High School Unit in Home and Family Relationships, 982; Objectives in Teaching Family Relationships, 119; Some Contributions of Psychology to the Teaching of Family Relationships, 885; Trends in Family Life Today, 311 (See also Child Development and Family Relationships).
Family Welfare Organization, The Place of the Home Economist in a, 411
Farm Homemakers: How Illinois Farm Homemakers Have Made Adjustments to Present Conditions, 240
Farm Life, The Future Promise of, 974
Farm Youth: Programs for Farm Youth Based on Social and Economic Conditions, 605
Fashion Work, Essentials for, 32
Fashions: Individuality, Fashions, and the Clothes We Buy, 609
Fat: The Effect of Fat on Shrinkage and Speed in the Roasting of Beef, 720
Federal Appropriations (ed.), 719
Federal Appropriations and Home Economics (ed.), 535
Federal Home Loan Bank System, 1074
FELLERS, CARL R. (and PAUL D. ISHAM). Vitamin C in Canned Citrus Products, 827; 850
Fellowship Awards (ed.), 614
Fellowships for Home Economists (ed.), 48
FIELD, ADA M. (and ELIZABETH KAUFMAN). Cooking Tests with Lima Bean Flours, 626; 670
Field Worker in Child Development and Parental Education (eds.), 712, 1088
Finer Arts of Homemaking in a Public Library, 336
Flamo: Relative Cost of Flamo and Electricity for Cooking, 537
FLANLEY, MABEL G. (and ELEANOR M. JOHNSON). Iron Loss in Cooking Broccoli, 821; 850
FLEMINGTON, CLARA N. The Home Economics Teacher and the Housing of Her Department, 337; Space and Equipment of the Home Economics Department, 230; 309
Food Economics in 1877 (ed.), 351
Food and Nutrition: Abstracts of Papers on Food and Nutrition, reported to the research committee of the food and nutrition section, June 24, 1932, 924; Abstracts from Periodicals, 64, 180, 273, 377, 462, 553, 643, 737, 839, 1012, 1107; Adequacy of Daily Menus at Low Cost in a Home Management House, 132; Adequate Food at Low Cost (ed.), 145; Cafeteria Problems in Rural Schools, 595; Consumer Food Purchases from Chain and Independent Dealers, 436; Cookbook in Braille (ed.), 716; Cooking Tests with Lima Bean Flours, 626; Cooperation for Better Nutrition (ed.), 986; Definitions of Terms Used in Meat Cookery, 129; A Demonstration Food Lesson, 806; Descriptions of Acceptable Food Products, 1024, 1114, (ed.), 989; Detroit Demonstrates What the Welfare Food Dollar Will Do, 607; Educative Values in the School Lunch, 602; The Effect of Fat on Shrinkage and Speed in the Roasting of Beef, 720; Food Economies in 1877 (ed.), 351; Foods and Food Advertising (ed.), 255; Fruits and Vegetables vs. Milk in the Low Cost Diet (ed.), 147; Golden Rule Economy Menus (ed.), 1089; Grades and Labels for Canned Fruits and Vegetables, 948, (ed.), 988; The History of Evaporated Milk, 793; Information about Canned Food

Food and Nutrition (cont'd):
Products, 527; Iron Loss in Cooking Broccoli, 821; Low Cost Diets Planned According to Different Standards, 113; Nutrition, Health Education, and Home Economics in the Public Schools, 961; Nutrition in the Public Schools (ed.), 809; Palatability Tests with Quick-cooked Rolled Oats, Boiled over Direct Flame, 243; The Pecan Nut as a Source of Vitamin A, 49; The Relation of Calcium and Phosphorus in the Diet to the Cause of Mottled Enamel of Human Teeth, 1091; The Relation of Maturity, Size, Period in Storage, and Variety to the Speed and Evenness of Cooking of Potatoes, 262; Roman Banquet, 707; The School Lunch, Education, and Malnutrition (ed.), 615; Tricky Labels on Foods, 502; Truth in Food Advertising, 705; The Vitamin B and G Content of Raw and Cooked Broccoli, 823; Vitamin C in Canned Citrus Products, 827

Foods and Food Advertising (ed.), 255

FORD, MERLE. A Demonstration Food Lesson, 806; 850

Forward Look for Student Clubs, 906

4-H Club Work with Rural Girls, 686

FRENCH, MARTHA. Parent Education by Radio, 239; 309

Fruits and Vegetables vs. Milk in the Low Cost Diet (ed.), 147

FRYSINGER, GRACE E. Home Demonstration Work with Rural Women, 683; 759

Functions of the Home, The Essential (ed.), 344

Future Promise of Farm Life, 974

G

GEHRKE, BERTHA. Homemaking in the Junior High School, Winnetka, Illinois, 515; 579

General Foods Cookbook (book rev'd), 1099

George Washington Bicentennial (ed.), 141

Georgia (ed.), 42

German Teachers, The Plight of (ed.), 817

GLOVER, KATHERINE. [Martha Van Rensselaer] As Private Citizen and Public Servant, 767; 849

GODFREY, GRACE. A Forward Look for Student Clubs, 906

Golden Rule Economy Menus (ed.), 1089

GOODSPEED, HELEN C. [Revaluations in Home Economics Education] For Large City High Schools, 422; 494

Grades and Labels for Canned Fruits and Vegetables, 948; (ed.), 988

Grand Rapids: Survey of the Girls at Junior Vocational School, Grand Rapids, Michigan, 135

GRAY, GRETA (and FRANCES PITTS). Teaching Household Management to High School Pupils on Various Economic Levels, 689; 759

GREEN, ANNA G. The Pennsylvania Practice Cottage as a Home Center, 1068; 1129

GRETHER, E. T. Consumer Food Purchases from Chain and Independent Dealers, 436; 494

GRIES, JOHN M. The Housing Conference and Home Economics, 1039; 1129

GROSS, IRMA H. (and MARIAN E. MOORE). Adequacy of Daily Menus at Low Cost in a Home Management House, 132; 207

GUILFORD, ELIZABETH. Adjusting Family Spending to Meet Reduced Incomes, 941; 1037; Home Economists at the National Conference of Social Work, 699; 759

H

HADLEY, LAURA B. Objectives in Teaching Family Relationships. III. Opinions of Mothers, 125; 207

HALBERT, BLANCHE. New Projects of Better Homes in America, 217; 309
Hawaiian Home Management House, Internationalism in a, 1060
Hawley, Edith. Economics of Food Consumption (book rev'd), 545
Health: Arguments for Supporting Health Work (ed.), 987; Clothing and Health in a School Assembly Program, 709; Health Education and the Home Economics Teacher (ed.), 985; Nutrition, Health Education, and Home Economics in the Public Schools, 961; Tuberculosis and the Depression, 1076
HENRY, MABEL S. Pueblo Smith-Hughes Homemaking Classes and Community Needs, 339; 400
High School Home Economics Teachers in the United States, 227
High School Senior and Her College Wardrobe, 17
High School Unit in Home and Family Relationships, 982
Higher Education, Home Economics in, 851
HINDMAN, LITA. The Use of the Problem Method in Teaching Textiles, 330; 400
History of Evaporated Milk, 793
HOERNER, MARY FINCH. The Married Woman as a Teacher of Home Economics, 109; 207
Home Can Strengthen Home Economics Instruction, How the, 900
Home Demonstration Work: The Contribution of Home Demonstration Work to Adult Education in the United States, 904; Home Demonstration Work with Rural Women, 683
Home Economics Abroad: Domestic Science in Madras Schools (ed.), 815; English Meetings: The Association of Teachers of Domestic Subjects (ed.), 918; English Meetings: The National Federation of Women's Institutes (ed.), 920
Home Economics in Business (ed.), 1086
Home Economics Cottages: The Cottage Plan for Home Economics Departments (ed.), 1087; Housing the Home Economics Department, 1064;
Home Economics Department: The Apartment in the Public School, 232; The Home Economics Teacher and the Housing of Her Department, 337; Housing the Home Economics Department, 1064; Space and Equipment of the Home Economics Department, 230
Home Economics and Economics (ed.), 533
Home Economics Education: The Business of the Home and Courses in General Business Training (ed.), 37; Cafeteria Problems in Rural Schools, 595; Changing Emphasis on Clothing Courses, 889; A College Course in Family Relationships, 133; Conference on Home Economics in Education by Radio (ed.), 531; The Cottage Plan for Home Economics Departments (ed.), 1087; Creative Work and the Home Economics Teacher (ed.), 534; A Demonstration Food Lesson, 806; Discussion of Home Economics Education in the Light of Economic and Social Changes, 898; Economics and Home Economics Instruction in the Schools, 584; Educative Values in the School Lunch, 602; Elementary and Secondary Education for Family Living, 221; An Experiment in Teaching Child Care, 798; Family and Household Life as Objectives of Appreciational Cultural Educations, 322; Health Education and the Home Economics Teacher (ed.), 985; High School Home Economics Teachers in the United States, 227; A High School Unit in Home and Family Relationships, 982; Home Economics in the Educational System, 857; Home Economics in the

Home Economics Education (cont'd):
Evening School, 980; Home Economics in Higher Education, 851; Home Economics at the National Education Association (ed.), 446; Home Economics Objectives as Shown in a Survey of Educational Literature, 353; The Home Economics Teacher and the Housing of Her Department, 337; Home Economics Tests and Measurements (ed.), 811; The Home Project as an Aid in the College Foods Course, 611; Homemaking in the Continuation School, 788; Homemaking Education, 1928 to 1930 (ed.), 347; Homemaking Education on the Island of Porto Rico, 679; Homemaking Education in a Progressive Public School (ed.), 534; Homemaking in the Junior High School, Winnetka, Illinois, 515; Housing the Home Economics Department, 1064; How the Home Can Strengthen Home Economics Instruction, 900; Inspection Trips for College Students, 978; A Kentucky Study of the Supervisory Program, 693; The Married Woman as a Teacher of Home Economics, 109; Minneapolis Conference on Homemaking Education (ed.), 711; New England Conferences on Homemaking (ed.), 613; Nutrition, Health Education, and Home Economics in the Public Schools, 961; Objectives in Teaching Family Relationships, 119; Opportunities of Home Economics in the Training of College Students for Life Security, 895; The Philosophy of Home Economics, 896; A Plan for Assistant Teaching in Home Economics, 800; Planning Ahead for Home Economics Classes (ed.), 248; Present-Day Home Economics (ed.), 439; Problems and Progress in Supervision (ed.), 715; Problems in the Teaching of Clothing Construction, 521; The Prognostic Value of the Honor Point Ratios of Home Economics Students, 54; Radio and Education (ed.), 990; Responsibility of Home Economics Teachers in Their Communities in the Present Economic Crisis, 880; Revaluations in Home Economics Education, 418; The School Lunch, Education, and Malnutrition (ed.), 615; Socializing School Atmosphere, 230; Some Contributions of Psychology to the Teaching of Family Relationships, 885; A Study of the Individual Assignment versus the Class Method of Instruction in a Ninth-Grade Clothing Class, 621; Suggestions for the Improvement of Home Economics in the Public Schools in Relation to Better Living, 782; Survey of the Girls at Junior Vocational School, Grand Rapids, Michigan, 135; Teaching of Color, 892; Teaching Home Management (ed.), 713; Teaching Household Management to High School Pupils on Various Economic Levels, 689; Teaching Textiles (ed.), 347; A Textile Merchandise Major in a Home Economics Curriculum, 30; The Use of the Problem Method in Teaching Textiles, 330; Using Creative Power in the Classroom, 523; What Home Economics Has Contributed to the Development of the American Girl and Boy, 1053 (See also Homemaking Education).

Home Economics in the Educational System, 857

Home Economics and Emergency Relief (ed.), 38

Home Economics in the Evening School, 980

Home Economics, Federal Appropriations and (ed.), 535

Home Economics in Higher Education, 851
Home Economics at the Land-Grant College Meetings (ed.), 44
Home Economics at the National Education Association Meetings in February (eds.), 45, 446; June (ed.), 532
Home Economics Objectives as Shown in a Survey of Educational Literature, 353
Home Economics, The Philosophy of, 896
Home Economics, Present-Day (ed.), 439
Home Economics in the Public Schools, Nutrition, Health Education, and, 961
Home Economics and Social Work in the United States, 401; (ed.) 440
Home Economics Teacher and the Housing of Her Department, 337
Home Economics Teachers in Their Communities in the Present Economic Crisis, Responsibility of, 880
Home Economics Teachers in the United States, High School, 227
Home Economics Tests and Measurements (ed.), 811
Home Economics in the Training of College Students for Life Security, Opportunities of, 895
Home Economics Worker and Relief Programs (ed.), 346
Home Economist in a Family Welfare Organization, The Place of the, 411
Home Economists at the National Conference of Social Work, 699
Home Economists in Social Agencies during the Present Emergency, 431
Home, The Essential Functions of the (ed.), 344
Home, A Lenten Program on the (ed.), 345
Home Life in Foreign Countries, Books about (ed.), 349
Home Management: Teaching Home Management (ed.), 713 (See also Household Management and the House, Its Equipment and Management).
Home Management House, Adequacy of Daily Menus at Low Cost in a, 132
Home Project as an Aid in the College Foods Course, 611
Home in Relation to Child Care and Development, The Socio-Economic Status of the, 892
Homemaking Conference, The National (ed.), 439
Homemaking in the Continuation School, 788
Homemaking Education: Abstracts from Periodicals, 69, 277, 466, 740; (See also Home Economics Education).
Homemaking Education, 1928 to 1930 (ed.), 347
Homemaking Education in a Progressive Public School (ed.), 534
Homemaking Education on the Island of Porto Rico, 679
Homemaking in the Junior High School, Winnetka, Illinois, 515
House, Its Equipment and Management: Abstracts from Periodicals, 73, 281, 469, 646, 1016; Standards for Women as Household Employers (ed.), 350; Washing Machines in Illinois Homes, 802 (See also Home Management and Household Management).
Household Efficiency at the International Scientific Management Congress, 1081
Household Employers, Standards for Women as (ed.), 350
Household Engineering, 889
Household Management: Relative Cost of Flamo and Electricity for Cooking, 537; Standards for Women as Household Employers (ed.), 350; Teaching Household Management

Household Management (cont'd):
to High School Pupils on Various Economic Levels, 689; Time Spent in Meal Preparation in Private Households, 10 (See also the House, Its Equipment and Management).
Housing: The Federal Home Loan Bank System, 1074; New Projects of Better Homes in America, 217; The President's Conference on Home Building and Home Ownership (eds.), 138, 140, 253, 916
Housing Conference and Home Economics, 1039
Housing Conference Reports and Home Economics (ed.), 916
Housing the Home Economics Department, 1064; (ed.), 1087
How Clothing Classes May Serve a Community, 28
How the Home Can Strengthen Home Economics Instruction, 900
How Illinois Farm Homemakers Have Made Adjustments to Present Conditions, 240
How the University of Cincinnati Helps with Community Nutrition Problems, 804

I

Identifying Our Contributors (ed.), 47
Illinois Farm Homemakers Have Made Adjustments to Present Conditions, How, 240
Indianapolis Public Library: The Finer Arts of Homemaking in a Public Library, 336
Individual Assignment versus the Class Method of Instruction in a Ninth-Grade Clothing Class, A Study of the, 621
Individuality, Fashions, and the Clothes We Buy, 609
Information about Canned Food Products, 527
Inspection Trips for College Students, 978
Installment Credit to Consumers, The Cost of, 25
Institute on Home Economics and Radio, June 20 (ed.), 438
Institution Administration: Abstracts from Periodicals, 285, 474, 844, 1111; Adequacy of Daily Menus at Low Cost in a Home Management House, 132; Managerial Status of Women in Food Service and Institutional Housekeeping, 340
Instruction in Personal Grooming, 703
Insurance and the Dependent Family, Life, 526
Interests of Adolescent Girls and Boys, Suggested, 886
International Scientific Management Congress, Household Efficiency at the, 1081; Determination of Standards for the Establishment of Household Budgets for the Expenditure of Money, Time, and Energy, 1047
Internationalism in a Hawaiian Home Management House, 1060
Iron Loss in Cooking Broccoli, 821
ISHAM, PAUL D. (and CARL R. FELLERS). Vitamin C in Canned Citrus Products, 827; 850

J

JAMES, CONCHA ROMERO. Latin Americans at Home and at Play, 325; 400
JENSEN, MILDRED N. ROBISON (and MILTON B. JENSEN). Instruction in Personal Grooming, 703; 760
JENSEN, MILTON B. Opportunities of Home Economics in the Training of College Students for Life Security, 895; Some Contributions of Psychology to the Teaching of Family Relationships, 885; (and MILDRED N. ROBISON JENSEN) Instruction in Personal Grooming, 703; 760
Jobs for the Home Economist, New, 700
JOHNSON, ELEANOR M. (and MABEL G. FLANLEY). Iron Loss in Cooking Broccoli, 821; 850

JOHNSON, HELEN. The Federal Home Loan Bank System, 1074; 1129
Johnston, Margaret (ed.), 716
Junior Vocational School, Grand Rapids, Michigan, Survey of the Girls at, 135
JUSTIN, FLORENCE. Methods Employed and Results Obtained by Nursery School Teachers in Their Child-training Contacts, 885

K

KAUFMAN, ELIZABETH (and ADA M. FIELD). Cooking Tests with Lima Bean Flours, 626; 670
KELLER, LOUISE (and CLARA M. BROWN). The Prognostic Value of the Honor Point Ratios of Home Economics Students, 54; 102
Kentucky Study of the Supervisory Program, 693
KIFER, HILDA BLACK (and HAZEL E. MUNSELL). The Vitamin B and G Content of Raw and Cooked Broccoli, 823; 850
KINNEY, MARJORIE. Individuality, Fashions, and the Clothes We Buy, 609; 669
KLOSS, VICTORIA M. Using Creative Power in the Classroom, 523; 579
KNAPP, BRADFORD. The Contribution of Home Demonstration Work to Adult Education in the United States, 904
Kolshorn, Agnes, et al. Food Preparation Studies (book rev'd), 931

L

Label Reader's Primer, 1078
Labelling Wool Content in Blankets, 237
Labels: Grades and Labels for Canned Fruits and Vegetables, 948; (ed.), 988; Labels for Wool Blankets (ed.), 249; Tricky Labels on Foods, 502
LANCASTER, MABEL C. (and MARION DEYOE SWEETMAN). The Relation of Maturity, Size, Period in Storage, and Variety to the Speed and Evenness of Cooking of Potatoes, 262; 310
Land-Grant College Meetings, Home Economics at the (ed.), 44
Langworthy, Charles Ford, 1864–1932 (ed.), 442
Lanman, Faith R., et al. The Family's Food (book rev'd), 544
Latin Americans at Home and at Play, 325
LATZKE, ALPHA. Related Art and Clothing, 891
Legislation: Congressional Legislation of Interest to Home Economics (ed.), 251; Federal Appropriations (ed.), 719; Federal Appropriations and Home Economics (ed.), 535; Legislation and Home Economics (ed.), 1083
Lenten Program on the Home (ed.), 345
"Lesson of the Day" (ed.), 717
LEVERTON, RUTH M. (and MARGARET CAMMACK SMITH). The Relation of Calcium and Phosphorus in the Diet to the Cause of Mottled Enamel of Human Teeth, 1091; 1130
LEVINE, HAROLD. The Pecan Nut as a Source of Vitamin A, 49; 102
Library on Tap, Your, 976
Life Insurance and the Dependent Family, 526
Lima Bean Flours, Cooking Tests with, 626
Lindquist, Ruth, et al. Managing the Home (book rev'd), 930
LOOMIS, C. FRANCES. The Program of the Camp Fire Girls, 588; 669
Low Cost Diets: Adequacy of Daily Menus at Low Cost in a Home Management House, 132; Adequate Food at Low Cost (ed.), 145; Fruits and Vegetables vs. Milk in the Low Cost Diet (ed.), 147
Low Cost Diets Planned According to Different Standards, 113

Lowe, Belle. Experimental Cookery, from the Chemical and Physical Standpoint (book rev'd), 931

LYNDE, CARLETON J. The Dirt-lifting Efficiency and Wear Produced on Carpets by Different Types of Vacuum Sweepers, 257; 310; Household Engineering, 889

LYNDE, LYDIA ANN. The Extension Program in Child Development and Parent Education in the State of Michigan, 894

M

MACK, PAULINE BEERY. Labelling Wool Content in Blankets, 237; (and ANNE ARGUE D'OLIER), Effect of Storage in the Dark on the Breaking Strength of Weighted and Unweighted Silks, 165; (and NELLIE MYRES ROBERTS), The Effect of Weighting on the Air Permeability of Silk, 539; A Study of the Effect of Artificial Perspiration on the Breaking Strength of Weighted and Unweighted Silks, 450; A Study of the Effects of Light and Air on the Physical Properties of Weighted and Unweighted Silks, 151; 208

MACLAY, ELEANOR R. How the University of Cincinnati Helps with Community Nutrition Problems, 804; 850

Madras Schools, Domestic Science in (ed.), 815

Managerial Status of Women in Food Service and Institutional Housekeeping, 340

MANIKOWSKE, CECILE. Big Business in Time of Depression, 26; 101

MANN, ALBERT RUSSELL. [Martha Van Rensselaer] As College Administrator, 764; 849

MARCHBANKS, MODANE. Problems in Home Living in a Consolidated School, 1080; 1130

Married Woman as a Teacher of Home Economics, 109

MARTIN, ETHEL AUSTIN (AND M. LUCILLE DAVISON). Health Education in the Public Schools of Akron, Ohio, 967; 1037

MASSEE, EDITH. Milwaukee Home Economists Save Money for Relief Agencies and the Community, 433 494

MCGREGOR, MURIEL (and LUCILE STRICKLAND). [Revaluations in Home Economics Education] For Smaller Junior High Schools, 427; 494

McKay, Hughina, et al. The Family's Food (book rev'd), 544

Meal Preparation in Private Households, Time Spent in, 10

Meat Cookery, Definitions of Terms Used in, 129

Memberships in the International Federation of Home Economics (ed.), 1090

Menus: Adequacy of Daily Menus at Low Cost in a Home Management House, 132

Methods Employed and Results Obtained by Nursery School Teachers in Their Child-Training Contacts, 885

Michigan, The Extension Program in Child Development and Parent Education in the State of, 894

Milk: Fruits and Vegetables vs. Milk in the Low Cost Diet (ed.), 147

MILLER, ELLEN. Elementary and Secondary Education for Family Living, 221; 309

Milwaukee Home Economists Save Money for Relief Agencies and the Community, 433

Minneapolis Conference on Homemaking Education (ed.), 711

Miscellany: 76, 190, 289, 383, 477, 560, 650, 747, 847, 936, 1026, 1116

MOBLEY, CLYDE. Home Economics Quarters in Louisiana, 1066; 1129
Money and the Child's Own Standards of Living, 1
Monroe, Day. Chicago Families (book rev'd), 1098; 1129
MONTGOMERY, EVA F. The Home Project as an Aid in the College Foods Course, 611; 669
MOORE, MARIAN E. (and IRMA H. GROSS). Adequacy of Daily Menus at Low Cost in a Home Management House, 132; 207
MORGAN, AGNES FAY, et al. The Effect of Fat on Shrinkage and Speed in the Roasting of Beef, 720; 760
MOSER, ADA M. Round Table on Research in Family Economics, 887;
Movies, Children and the (ed.), 256
MUNSELL, HAZEL E. (and HILDA BLACK KIFER). The Vitamin B and G Content of Raw and Cooked Broccoli, 823; 850

N

National Association of Nursery Education, Philadelphia, November, 1931, 34
National Conference of Social Work, Home Economists at the, 699
National Congress of Parents and Teachers: Minneapolis Conference on Homemaking Education (eds.), 439, 711
National Council on Parent Education: Parent Education Conference, Washington, February (ed.), 150
National Education Association: Department of Supervisors and Teachers of Home Economics (ed.), 994; Home Economics at Atlantic City (ed.), 819; Home Economics at the National Education Association Meetings in February (eds.), 45, 446; June (ed.), 532
National Federation of Women's Institutes (ed.), 920
National Homemaking Conference (ed.), 439
NELSON, MARIANA T. What Homemakers Learned about Purchasing Household Goods, 519; 579
New Classification of Abstracts from Periodicals (ed.), 46
New England Conference on Homemaking (ed.), 613
New Jobs for the Home Economist, 700
New Projects of Better Homes in America, 217
News from the Field, 78, 192, 291, 386, 479, 563, 652, 750, 1028, 1118
Niles, Kathryn B. (and Alice M. Child). Food Preparation Recipes (book rev'd), 632; et al., Food Preparation Studies (book rev'd), 931
NOFSKER, JULIA FRANK. Home Economics Objectives as Shown in a Survey of Educational Literature, 353; 400
Nursery School Teachers in Their Child-training Contacts, Methods Employed and Results Obtained by, 885
Nutrition: (See Food and Nutrition.)
Nutrition, Health Education, and Home Economics in the Public Schools, 961
Nutrition in the Public Schools (ed.), 809
Nutrition Service of the American Red Cross (ed.), 441
NYSTROM, PAUL H. The Consumer's Responsibility in the Present Crisis, 209, 309; A Restatement of the Principles of Consumption to Meet Present Conditions, 869

O

Objectives in Teaching Family Relationships, 119
Occupations: (see Vocations.)
Opportunities of Home Economics in the Training of College Students for Life Security, 895

P

Palatability Tests with Quick-cooked Rolled Oats, Boiled over Direct Flame, 243
Palmer, George Truman, et al. Health Protection for the Preschool Child (book rev'd), 270
Pan American Day, 1932 (ed.), 348
Parent Education, 103
Parent Education: The Extension Program in Child Development and Parent Education in the State of Michigan, 894; Parent Education Conference, Washington, February (ed.), 150; The Scope and Purpose of Parent Education, 893
Parent Education by Radio, 239
PARSONS, EVERICE. The Apartment in the Public School, 232; 309
PASHLEY, MABLE RAE. Homemaking in the Continuation School, 788; 849
PATTISON, MATTIE. Problems in the Teaching of Clothing Construction, 521; 579
PAYNE, BLANCHE. Eastern European Costume as Inspiration for Modern Costume Design, 890
PEABODY, MAY E. Discussion of Home Economics Education in the Light of Economic and Social Changes, 898
Pecan Nut as a Source of Vitamin A, 49
Permanent Values of the Family, 861
PERRY, ARMSTRONG. Radio in Educational Institutions, 907
Personal Grooming, Instruction in, 703
Perspiration: A Study of the Effect of Artificial Perspiration on the Breaking Strength of Weighted and Unweighted Silks, 450
Pfaffmann, Mary (and Frances Stern). Food and Your Body (book rev'd), 833
Philosophy of Home Economics, 896
Phosphorus: The Relation of Calcium and Phosphorus in the Diet to the Cause of Mottled Enamel of Human Teeth, 1091
PICKEN, MARY BROOKS. Essentials for Fashion Work, 32; 102
PITTS, FRANCES (and GRETA GRAY). Teaching Household Management to High School Pupils on Various Economic Levels, 689; 759
Place of the Home Economist in a Family Welfare Organization, 411
Plan for Assistant Teaching in Home Economics, 800
Planning Ahead for Home Economics Classes (ed.), 248
Plight of German Teachers (ed.), 817
POPENOE, PAUL. Objectives in Teaching Family Relationships. I. Opinions of Teachers in Training, 119; 207
Popular Publications of the Bureau of Home Economics (ed.), 444
Porto Rico: Homemaking Education on the Island of Porto Rico, 679
Potatoes: The Relation of Maturity, Size, Period in Storage, and Variety to the Speed and Evenness of Cooking of Potatoes, 262
Present Status of the American Family, 773
Present-Day Home Economics (ed.), 439
President's Conference on Home Building and Home Ownership: (eds.), 138, 140, 253, 916; The Housing Conference and Home Economics, 1039; Publications, 547, 634, 734, 932, 933, 1003, 1099
Problems in Home Living in a Consolidated School, 1080
Problems and Progress in Supervision (ed.), 715
Problems in the Teaching of Clothing Construction, 521
Prognostic Value of the Honor Point Ratios of Home Economics Students, 54
Program of the Camp Fire Girls, 588
Programs for Farm Youth Based on Social and Economic Conditions, 605

Psychology: Some Contributions of Psychology to the Teaching of Family Relationships, 885
Public Library, The Finer Arts of Homemaking in a, 336
Pueblo Smith-Hughes Homemaking Classes and Community Needs, 339
Purchasing Information for the Homemaker, 902

R

Radio: British Broadcasting on Home Topics (ed.), 991; Conference on Home Economics in Education by Radio (ed.), 531; Institute on Home Economics and Radio, June 20 (ed.), 438; Parent Education by Radio, 239; Radio as an Aid to Research in Family Life (ed.), 994; Radio and Education (ed.), 990; Some Essentials of Educational Broadcasting, 908; Twenty-Fifth Annual Meeting: Radio (ed.), 915; Writing the Home Economics Radio Program, 954
Radio in Educational Institutions, 907
RAND, WINIFRED. Parent Education, 103; 207
RATHBONE, ROSALIE V. The Changing Emphasis on Clothing Courses, 889
Red Cross Nutrition Consultant (ed.), 917
Regulating Roadside Markets, 511
REID, BENETA. A High School Unit in Home and Family Relationships, 982; 1037
Related Art and Clothing, 891
Relation of Calcium and Phosphorus in the Diet to the Cause of Mottled Enamel of Human Teeth, 1091
Relation of Maturity, Size, Period in Storage, and Variety to the Speed and Evenness of Cooking of Potatoes, 262
Relative Cost of Flamo and Electricity for Cooking, 537
Relief Work in the Milwaukee Public Schools, 525
Responsibility of Home Economics Teachers in Their Communities in the Present Economic Crisis, 880
Restatement of the Principles of Consumption to Meet Present Conditions, 869
"Revaluations" (ed.), 245
Revaluations in Home Economics Education, 418
RICHARDSON, INEZ G. White House Conference on Child Health and Protection, 875; 938
Roadside Markets, Regulating, 511
ROBERTS, LYDIA J. Nutrition Needs of the School Child and the Responsibility of the Home Economics Teacher, 961; 1037
ROBERTS, NELLIE MYRES (with PAULINE BEERY MACK). The Effect of Weighting on the Air Permeability of Silk, 539; A Study of the Effect of Artificial Perspiration on the Breaking Strength of Weighted and Unweighted Silks, 450; A Study of the Effects of Light and Air on the Physical Properties of Weighted and Unweighted Silks, 151; 208
Rolled Oats: Palatability Tests with Quick-cooked Rolled Oats, Boiled over Direct Flame, 243
Roman Banquet, 707
Round Table on Research in Family Economics, 887
Rural Schools, Cafeteria Problems in, 595
RUSH, OLA DAY. The High School Senior and Her College Wardrobe, 17; 101

S

SALISBURY, MORSE. Writing the Home Economics Radio Program, 954; 1037
SANDERSON, DWIGHT. Trends in Family Life Today, 311; 400

SCHAEFFER, A., JR. Tuberculosis and the Depression, 1076; 1129
Scholarship in Health Education (ed.), 48
School Assembly Program, Clothing and Health in a, 709
School Lunch: Cafeteria Problems in Rural Schools, 595; Educative Values in the School Lunch, 602; The School Lunch, Education, and Malnutrition (ed.), 615
Scope and Purpose of Parent Education, 893
SEAVER, LEONA. How Clothing Classes May Serve a Community, 28; 101
Security: Opportunities of Home Economics in the Training of College Students for Life Security, 895
SELL, IVA I. (and CLARA M. BROWN). A Study of the Individual Assignment versus the Class Method of Instruction in a Ninth-Grade Clothing Class, 621; 669
SHERMAN, CAROLINE B. Regulating Roadside Markets, 511; 579
SHIRLEY, FLORENCE KELLER. Educative Values in the School Lunch, 602; 669
Silk Weighting Conference (ed.), 618
Silks: Changes in Solubility and Absorption Spectra of Silk Fibroin Caused by Tin Weighting, 995; Effect of Storage in the Dark on the Breaking Strength of Weighted and Unweighted Silks, 165; The Effect of Weighting on the Air Permeability of Silk, 539; A Study of the Effect of Artificial Perspiration on the Breaking Strength of Weighted and Unweighted Silks, 450; A Study of the Effects of Light and Air on the Physical Properties of Weighted and Unweighted Silks, 151
SMITH, MARGARET CAMMACK (and RUTH M. LEVERTON). The Relation of Calcium and Phosphorus in the Diet to the Cause of Mottled Enamel of Human Teeth, 1091; 1130
Smith-Hughes: Pueblo Smith-Hughes Homemaking Classes and Community Needs, 339
SNEDDEN, DAVID. Family and Household Life as Objectives of Appreciational Cultural Educations, 322; 400
Social Agencies during the Present Emergency, Home Economists in, 431
Social Work: Home Economics and Social Work (ed.), 440; Home Economics and Social Work in the United States, 401; Home Economists at the National Conference of Social Work, 699; Home Economists in Social Agencies during the Present Emergency, 431; The Place of the Home Economist in a Family Welfare Organization, 411
Socializing School Atmosphere, 230.
Socio-Economic Status of the Home in Relation to Child Care and Development, 892
Some Contributions of Psychology to the Teaching of Family Relationships, 885
Some Essentials of Educational Broadcasting, 908
Sommer, Albrecht. Lehre vom Privathaushalt (book rev'd), 60
Sophistication and a Spelling Lesson (ed.), 718
SOUTHARD, JULIA LURENA (with E. L. TAGUE). Changes in Solubility and Absorption Spectra of Silk Fibroin Caused by Tin Weighting, 995; 1037
Space and Equipment of the Home Economics Department, 230
SPICKARD, RONELLA. A Kentucky Study of the Supervisory Program, 693; 759

Standardization: Consumer Purchasing Leaflets (ed.), 250; Labelling Wool Content in Blankets, 237; Labels for Wool Blankets (ed.), 249; Silk Weighting Conference (ed.), 618; Study Outline in Standardization of Articles for Home Use (ed.), 917

Standards for Women as Household Employers (ed.), 350

Status of Women in Food Service and Institutional Housekeeping, Managerial, 340

STEIN, GERTRUDE R. New Jobs for the Home Economist, 700; 759

Stern, Frances (and Mary Pfaffmann). Food and Your Body (book rev'd), 833

STEVENS, MARJORIE (and MARION M. BLAKE). The Clubroom in the Public School, 234; 309

STRICKLAND, LUCILE (and MURIEL MCGREGOR). [Revaluations in Home Economics Education] For Smaller Junior High Schools, 427; 494

Student Clubs: A Forward Look for Student Clubs, 906

Studley, Lucy A., et al. Managing the Home (book rev'd), 930

Study of the Effect of Artificial Perspiration on the Breaking Strength of Weighted and Unweighted Silks, 450

Study of the Effects of Light and Air on the Physical Properties of Weighted and Unweighted Silks, 151

Study of Extension Service Methods Used in Teaching Home Economics Subject Matter to Adults, 903

Study of the Individual Assignment versus the Class Method of Instruction in a Ninth-Grade Clothing Class, 621

Study Outline in Standardization of Articles for Home Use (ed.), 917

Suggested Interests of Adolescent Girls and Boys, 886

Suggestions for the Improvement of Home Economics in the Public Schools in Relation to Better Living, 782

Supervision, Problems and Progress in (ed.), 715

Supervisory Program, A Kentucky Study of the, 693

Survey of the Girls at Junior Vocational School, Grand Rapids, Michigan, 135

SUTTON, WILLIS A. Home Economics in the Educational System, 857; 938

SWEENY, MARY E. Responsibility of Home Economics Teachers in Their Communities in the Present Economic Crisis, 880; 938

SWEETMAN, MARION DEYOE. Food Preparation (book rev'd), 931; (and MABEL C. LANCASTER), The Relation of Maturity, Size, Period in Storage, and Variety to the Speed and Evenness of Cooking of Potatoes, 262; 310

T

TAGUE, E. L. (and JULIA LURENA SOUTHARD). Changes in Solubility and Absorption Spectra of Silk Fibroin Caused by Tin Weighting, 995; 1038

TAYLOR, MAURICE. The Place of the Home Economist in a Family Welfare Organization, 411; 494

Teaching of Color, 892

Teaching of Family Relationships, Some Contributions of Psychology to the, 885

Teaching Home Economics Subject Matter to Adults, A Study of Extension Service Methods Used in, 903

Teaching Home Management (ed.), 713

Teaching Household Management to High School Pupils on Various Economic Levels, 689
Teaching Textiles (ed.), 347
Teeth: The Relation of Calcium and Phosphorus in the Diet to the Cause of Mottled Enamel of Human Teeth, 1091
Textile Merchandise Major in a Home Economics Curriculum, 30
Textiles and Clothing: Abstracts from Periodicals, 184, 380, 556, 743, 1020; Changes in Solubility and Absorption Spectra of Silk Fibroin Caused by Tin Weighting, 995; The Changing Emphasis on Clothing Courses, 889; Clothes and the Man, 507; Clothing and Health in a School Assembly Program, 709; Eastern European Costume as Inspiration for Modern Costume Design, 890; Effect of Storage in the Dark on the Breaking Strength of Weighted and Unweighted Silks, 165; The Effect of Weighting on the Air Permeability of Silk, 539; Essentials for Fashion Work, 32; The High School Senior and Her College Wardrobe, 17; How Clothing Classes May Serve a Community, 28; Individuality, Fashions, and the Clothes We Buy, 609; Labelling Wool Content in Blankets, 237; Labels for Wool Blankets (ed.), 249; Problems in the Teaching of Clothing Construction, 521; Related Art and Clothing, 891; Silk Weighting Conference (ed.), 618; A Study of the Effect of Artificial Perspiration on the Breaking Strength of Weighted and Unweighted Silks, 450; A Study of the Effects of Light and Air on the Physical Properties of Weighted and Unweighted Silks, 151; A Study of the Individual Assignment versus the Class Method of Instruction in a Ninth-Grade Clothing Class, 621; Teaching Textiles (ed.), 347; A Textile Merchandise Major in a Home Economics Curriculum, 30; The Use of the Problem Method in Teaching Textiles, 330; What the Consumer Should Know about Clothing and Textiles, 21
THILLE, MARY, et al. The Effect of Fat on Shrinkage and Speed in the Roasting of Beef, 720; 760
Thom, Douglas A. Normal Youth and Its Everyday Problems (book rev'd), 631
Thrift, 1932 Model (ed.), 36
Time Spent in Meal Preparation in Private Households, 10
Tin Weighting, Changes in Solubility and Absorption Spectra of Silk Fibroin Caused by, 995
TOMLINSON, ANNA LOUISE. Your Library on Tap, 976; 1037
Training of College Students for Life Security, Opportunities of Home Economics in the, 895
Trends in Family Life Today, 311
Tricky Labels on Foods, 502
Trips for College Students, Inspection, 978
Truth in Food Advertising, 705
TRUXAL, ANDREW G. The Present Status of the American Family, 773; 849
Tuberculosis and the Depression, 1076
TURNER, MRS. BONNIE WELLS. How the Home Can Strengthen Home Economics Instruction, 900
TYLER, DOROTHY. Detroit Demonstrates What the Welfare Food Dollar Will Do, 607; 669

U

United States Department of Agriculture: What the United States Department of Agriculture and the Bureau of Home Economics Give You for Your Money (ed.), 818

University of Cincinnati: How the University of Cincinnati Helps with Community Nutrition Problems, 804
Use of the Problem Method in Teaching Textiles, 330
Using Creative Power in the Classroom, 523

V

Vacuum Sweepers, The Dirt-lifting Efficiency and Wear Produced on Carpets by Different Types of, 257
VALE, HELEN E. Survey of the Girls at Junior Vocational School, Grand Rapids, Michigan, 135; 208
Van Ingen, Philip, et al. Health Protection for the Preschool Child (book rev'd), 270
Van Rensselaer, Martha: 761–772; (ed.), 620
Vegetables: Fruits and Vegetables vs. Milk in the Low Cost Diet (ed.), 147
VINCENT, E. LEE. National Association of Nursery Education, Philadelphia, November, 1931, 34; 102
Vitamin A, The Pecan Nut as a Source of, 49
Vitamin B and G Content of Raw and Cooked Broccoli, 823
Vitamin C in Canned Citrus Products, 827
Vitamin G: The Vitamin B and G Content of Raw and Cooked Broccoli, 823
Vocational Guidance: Equality of Economic Opportunity and Occupational Training, 581
Vocations: New Jobs for the Home Economist, 700; Essentials for Fashion Work, 32

W

Wage-earning Homemakers, The Economic Status of, 864
WAMPLER, LETTA M. A Roman Banquet, 707; 760
WARD, GLADYS J. The Cost of Installment Credit to Consumers, 25; 101; (and KATHRYN VAN AKEN BURNS), How Illinois Farm Homemakers Have Made Adjustments to Present Conditions, 240; (and LOUISE YOUNG), Washing Machines in Illinois Homes, 802
WARREN, GERTRUDE L. 4-H Club Work with Rural Girls, 686; 759; Programs for Farm Youth Based on Social and Economic Conditions, 605; 669
Washing Machines in Illinois Homes, 802
Washington: George Washington Bicentennial (ed.), 141
Washingtons at Home (ed.), 142
Weighted and Unweighted Silks: Effect of Storage in the Dark on the Breaking Strength of Weighted and Unweighted Silks, 165; A Study of the Effect of Artificial Perspiration on the Breaking Strength of Weighted and Unweighted Silks, 450; A Study of the Effects of Light and Air on the Physical Properties of Weighted and Unweighted Silks, '51
Weighting: Changes in Solubility and Absorption Spectra of Silk Fibroin Caused by Tin Weighting, 995; The Effect of Weighting on the Air Permeability of Silk, 539
WEST, SUSAN F. Low Cost Diets Planned According to Different Standards, 113; 207
What the Consumer Should Know about Clothing and Textiles, 21
What Home Economics Has Contributed to the Development of the American Girl and Boy, 1053
What Homemakers Learned about Purchasing Household Goods, 519
What the World Needs (ed.), 922
WHEELER, JOHN TAYLOR. Suggestions for the Improvement of Home

WHEELER, JOHN TAYLOR (cont'd): Economics in the Public Schools in Relation to Better Living, 782; 849
White House Conference on Child Health and Protection: 875; (ed.), 619; Publications, 171, 270, 367, 457, 546, 633, 635, 934
WHITTEMORE, MARGARET. The Philosophy of Home Economics, 896
Willard, John Dayton (ed.), 254
WILLIAMS, FAITH M. Purchasing Information for the Homemaker, 902
Williams, J. Guilfoyle, Textiles on Test (book rev'd), 631
WILLIAMSON, LUCILLE J., et al. The Effect of Fat on Shrinkage and Speed in the Roasting of Beef, 720; 760
WILLOUGHBY, MARIAN. Inspection Trips for College Students, 978; 1037
WILLSON, INEZ SEARLES. Definitions of Terms Used in Meat Cookery, 129; 207
WILSON, MARY. A Plan for Assistant Teaching in Home Economics, 800; 849
WILSON, MAUD. Time Spent in Meal Preparation in Private Households, 10; 101
WINCHELL, CORA MARGUERITE. Home Economics for Public School Administrators (book rev'd), 269; [Revaluations in Home Economics Education] For the Training of Teachers, 418; 494
Winnetka, Illinois, Junior High School, Homemaking in the, 515
Woman's Part in Agricultural Adjustment to Meet Agricultural Conditions, 902
Wood, Mildred Weigley, et al. Managing the Home (book rev'd), 930
Writing the Home Economics Radio Program, 954

Y

Yearbook on Character Education (ed.), 810
YOUNG, LOUISE (and GLADYS J. WARD). Washing Machines in Illinois Homes, 802; 849
Your Library on Tap, 976

Z

ZUILL, FRANCES. Does Home Economics Function in the Modern Home, 671; 759; et al., The Family's Food (book rev'd), 544